$325 PER CAMPER PER WEEK

JUNE 6-9

OR

JUNE 27-30

OR

JULY 11-14

9 AM-3 PM

Join the BAYarts staff & Jr. Counselors for a Girls Camp Eco Arts experience!

Summer camp is a unique venue for growth, independence and confidence while socializing and making new friendships. Campers will explore the endless possibilities of creating wonderful and unique art from recycled materials. Working individually and collaboratively, campers will dip their toes into sculptural assemblages, gadget making & paper mache as well as hiking, yoga, nature crafts, sing-alongs and more!

The girls will be broken down into several age groups and will rotate through a variety of workshops, both indoors and outside throughout the week. As always, camp will conclude with our closing ceremony for families on the last day.

REGISTRATION FOR JUNE ONLY

ART FOR FUN: ADULT MINI SESSIONS

CRAFT & LAUGH

Jenny Whitehead

$15

Crafters, let's get together to share ideas, expertise and conversation with like-minded creatives. You'll be working on your own personal projects in a casual stress free zone. Jenny Whitehead, maker of Washer Woman Pendants, will facilitate the group. Bring whatever you are currently working on, we'll provide beverages and some light sustenance. Sign up for one week or all!

MON 6:30-8:30P

APR 4, 11, 25 | MAY 2, 9, 16

$15 per session

PAINTING WITH TISSUE PAPER

Ages 15 and older

Jenny Whitehead

$84

Come spend three enjoyable nights of stress free "painting with tissue paper". We'll talk about color and techniques practicing on smaller pieces before creating a larger "painting" on canvas board or on a lampshade. This method of tearing and layering tissue paper uses color to form shapes, shadows, texture and light. Jenny created all of the artwork in her children's book 'You're A Crab' using this technique and will bring in several pieces of original art from her book to share. This class is fun and perfect for both artists and non-artists wanting a "mistake-free" way to create art.

TUE 6:30-8:30P MAR 29-APR 12

Lamp shades from local thrift stores are provided for an extra low cost or you can bring your own.

JAPANESE PAPER & WILLOW LANTERN

HEARTH

Janet Wade

$65

Using willow and papers, students will learn the art of constructing a Japanese table top lantern. These lanterns are beautiful and can be used with battery powered lights. Students will design and build the framework of their lantern out of willow, then cover the framework with papers and embellishments. Once you learn the technique of constructing the lantern, you'll be able to make lanterns of all sizes at home.

SAT 10A-3P

APRIL 23

$20 supply fee to instructor

INDIGO & SHIBORI

HEARTH

Janet Wade

$65

Shibori is the Japanese dyeing technique that typically involves the binding of cloth and then dip dyeing the cloth bundle into a vat of indigo. Each student will choose a cotton scarf to dye and cotton squares to make samples of the different techniques that we learn in class.

SAT 10A-3P

MAY 7

$20 supply fee to instructor
